

Program Related Investments: Leveraging Funder Resources

With

Luther B. Ragin, F.B. Heron Foundation

April 7, 2005, 12:00-2:00pm

The Century Club

480 James Street, Syracuse

Cosponsored by the Gifford Foundation

Registration fee: $25 members/$40 nonmembers (Includes lunch)

- Learn about PRIs, an alternative grantmaking approach for funders to leverage their resources to further their missions.
- What are PRIs? Why use this method of charitable financing?
- What are the advantages, and problems encountered?

Luther Ragin, Vice President of Social Investments, will describe the Heron Foundation's philosophy and practices, using case study examples.

For more information, contact Lisa Dahl, lisa.dahl@grantmakers.org

REGISTER NOW!!

Please mail form and check (Sorry, we cannot accept credit cards.)
Rochester Grantmakers Forum (Funders Alliance of Upstate New York)
919 Winton Road South
Rochester, NY 14618-1633
585.232.2380 * Fax: 585.232.8413 * Email: Lisa.dahl@grantmakers.org

Program: Program Related Investments Number attendees____ Total $_____

Name(s): _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City, State _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____

www.grantmakers.org/FundersUpstate

Strengthening and promoting grantmaking in our region